KILLED ON CIRCUS TRAIN.

Mr. John C. Curtis, of this City, Meets a Sudden Death.

A sad accident occurred this morning about three o'clock at Germanton, as the John Robinson circus train was returning from Mt. Airy. Mr. John C. Curtis, of this city, a new man at the business, was acting in the capacity of a trainman, and was on top of the train attending the hand brakes. Just above Germanton is a dry bridge over the railroad track and it is supposed that as the car on which Curtis was stationed passed under the ropes suspended for the purpose of warning trainmen of the nearness to the bridge he was down pulling the brake and rose just in time for the bridge to strike his head.

A colored brakeman saw him and yelled to him to look out, but it was either too late or he did not hear the warning. He was unacquainted with the road and perhaps did not know about the bridge. When struck he fell on top of the car, and the colored brakeman ran to him, but he never spoke and life was extinct in two or three minutes.

The body was taken down and placed in the caboose car, reaching this city about five o'clock, where it was turned over to Undertaker Forbis and prepared for burial. About ten o'clock the remains were carried to the home on Arlington street.

Mr Curtis was 25 years old, and was married about eighteen months ago to a Miss Burns, of Sanford. His wife and a young baby are left in sadness by his untimely death. The funeral will be conducted from the residence tomorrow by Rev. J. F. McCulloch, and interment will be made in Greene Hill.

The exact hour for the funeral has not been fixed, but it will probably be soon after the arrival of the train from Ramseur Dr. Curtis was originally from Franklinville, and his people are looked for on the morning train.

BY MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Resolutions Adopted on the Death of Rev. Dr. Creasy.

Winston, Sept. 25—At the meeting of the Twin-City Ministerial Association this morning, the following resolutions were adopted, which explain themselves:

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father in the wise dispensations of His Providence to remove from our midst our much esteemed and tenderly beloved brother, Dr. W. S. Creasy, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal church.

Therefore Resolved, That we bear with humble submission to the will of Him who calls away His workers and carries on His work. That we put on record our loving estimate of his genuine worth. He was a man of stainless Christian character, of loving disposition, of unswerving purpose to do good among his fellow men. We honored him as a true man, as an able minister of Jesus Christ, as a faithful and sympathetic pastor sharing with us the arduous and delicate duties of the pastoral relation.

That we tender our sympathies to the congregation, which he so earnestly served, and to the members of his family, so sorely bereaved.

H. A. Brown,
Robt. E. Caldwell,
J. W. Frank,
Committee.

What's the Use.

Some of the papers are still lambasting the defunct "Great" Southern Minstrels, the aggregation which disgusted a large audience here on the 21st. They went to pieces at Salisbury, and now the papers are roasting them in earnest. The show was devoid of merit, but there have been worse performances in Greensboro. In fact there was less dirt and smut in it than the average minstrel. They were simply lacking in ability; but because the manager decamped with the funds and left the boys minus a month's pay is no reason why the roast should continue. What's the use in in keeping it up?

Afraid He Would Eat Them.

A couple of young ladies drove up from Wayne county to the yearly meeting at Little Rock church last Sunday, stopped their conveyances near where a crowd of young men were standing. None of them seeming to offer to assist the ladies, they then drove to where a married man was unhitching his team, who gallantly offered his services and unhitched their horse. The young ladies requested that he hitch their horse's head so high that it would not be able to see the crowd of green young men, for fear he might devour them.

Moral: It is the duty of young men to be gallant to the ladies on all occasions.—Wilson Times.

For Future Use.

"Now, stop crying, Tottie," said a Brooklyn mother to her little girl, who had been quarreling with her brother; "I am sure Bennie will take back all the mean things he said." "Yes, he'll take 'em back," was the sobbing reply, "so's he'll just have 'em ready to use over again."—Brooklyn Life.

BOERS ARMED WITH MAUSERS

Congregating on the Frontier Ready for Fighting.

WANT TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE.

Claimed at London that the Way has Been Cleared for Peace if the Boers Want Peace.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Pietermaritzburg, Sept. 26—A considerable body of Natal Boers, armed with Mauser rifles, supplied at Pretoria, are on the frontier, ready to fight. The British authorities are sending troops to disarm the Boers or drive them over the frontier. It is reported at Pretoria that armed burghers have demanded that General Joubert take command of them and get ready to fight. They insist that unless he is willing to take the initiative he must relinquish the command.

A PRECAUTIONARY MESSAGE.

Capetown, Sept. 26—Quantities of stores and ammunition are leaving here daily. The movement of troops to Natal is merely a precautionary measure to secure the mines. Rumors of border collision should be received with caution.

A WAY TO PEACE.

London, Sept. 26—The general feeling, including that of a pro-Boer source, is that the published dispatch of Chamberlain to Milner clears the way to peace, if the Boers desire peace. In any event, it is pointed out that a further delay is afforded, which should prove certainly advantageous to Great Britain in that it allows her more time to reinforce her garrisons. The Cape papers, however, generally express the hope that Kruger can now see his way to meet Great Britain's views.

In the meantime the dispatch of troops to Africa proceeds uninterruptedly. New field batteries have arrived at Berkenhead and today will be embarked at Duban.

London, Sept. 26—A Johannesburg dispatch to the Times states that the delay of the settlement of the negotiations are creating worst impression among the Boers. They boast that while Great Britain indicates delay in behalf of the burghers, she immediately and unnecessarily prolongs the controversy, because she is afraid to follow her game of bluff of force.

According to the Times' correspondents everywhere reports are received of the eagerness of the Boers to begin hostilities. Postponement is said to be almost wholly due to Joubert's restraining influence.

It is rumored that circumstantially Joubert has received imperative orders from armed burghers that unless he is prepared to take the initiative, but a brief period must elapse before he shall be called upon to relinquish command of the army.

14 AMERICAN PRISONERS

In the Rebels' Hands to be Surrendered Wednesday.

By Cable to the Telegram

Manila, Sept. 26—Two Englishmen, who have been held by insurgents since June, have arrived at Angeles and report that the Filipino congress has resolved that the fourteen American prisoners be surrendered on Wednesday or Thursday.

The Englishmen have no information of the whereabouts of Charles M. Rockfeller, of the Nineteenth infantry, who disappeared in April last. No trace of him has been discovered. They assert that three Americans, whom the rebels captured, are acting officers in the insurgent army.

Marion Montgomery, while operating a sander yesterday at Snow Lumber Factory, got his left hand caught in the machine. Three of hie fingers were badly mashed.

Nothing like a good reputation, such as the Great Barlow Minstrels has. Only yesterday evening reserved seats for this show were put on sale at Matton's drug store and since that time they have been "going" right along. Secure your seats early. Next Tuesday night, October 3, their date here.

There was a "circus" in town yesterday evening. It was composed of little boys. They gave their parade in a cart, drawn by four or five of their number. The instruments used were a horn that had seen its best days, bones, drums, tin pans, Jews-harps, etc. They attracted quite a crowd. It was interesting to watch their proceedings. The show took place in the lot back F. J. Horney's shop. Admission to all, three pins!

Charley Criddlebough, aged 31 years, died at his home on North Main street this morning about 6:30 o'clock. The deceased had been a sufferer for a number of years from heart disease, which was the direct cause of his death. He leaves four brothers and one sister to mourn his untimely demise. The funeral services will occur at Abbott's Creek church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and his remains will be interred in the graveyard there. Rev. J. M Hilliard will conduct the services. The sorrowing family, relatives and friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

EFFECT OF PROSPERITY.

Ship Builders Delayed by Inability to Obtain Material.

Washington, Sept. 25—National prosperity is making the navy department very unhappy these days. Those officials who are immediately concerned in the construction and outfitting of new warships are willing to have a little less prosperity. Nearly every firm that has obtained contracts for building torpedo boats or torpedo destroyers, recently has asked the department to extend the limit within which its special vessel or vessels must be finished. The contractors hold that the prevailing prosperity is accountable for the delay.

Inquiry of the navy department today showed that officials there believe it to be necessary to grant the extension. The new armored ships which will be recommended by the navy department this year will be designed with special reference to the use of Krupp armor, which is lighter and just as effective as that on the armored ships now in commission.

The inability of steel companies to supply more material may cause delay in the construction of the six cruisers authorized by congress at its last session.

The best way to get to the top is to begin at the bottom, and then just turn things upside down.

William and Charles Goldston, brothers, fought a duel with corn knives near New Albany, Ky., and both are now in a precarious condition.

ADMIRAL DEWEY HAS COME.

Battle-Scarred Olympia Arrives Two Days Ahead of Time.

THE ADMIRAL'S SALUTE FIRED

At the Proving Grounds Which was Responded to by the Guns that Spoke at Manila.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

New York, Sept. 26—The Olympia, with Admiral Dewey, arrived this morning, two days ahead of schedule time. The Olympia was sighted southeast of Sandy Hook lightship at 5:49. The steamer slowly passed The Hook and at 7:15 dropped anchor in the lower bay. When sighted the cruiser was proceeding slowly toward the fort. She maintained her uniform slow speed until she reached the anchorage. The admiral's salute was fired at the proving grounds. The Olympia responded with the guns that spoke at Manila. Every boat in the horseshoe screeched a welcome. Soon a large flotilla started for the big white vessel.

DEWEY WIRES VAN WYCK.

New York, Sept. 26—Mayor Van Wyck received a telegram from Dewey saying he would go to Tompkinsville Wednesday morning.

TO GREET THE ADMIRAL.

New York, Sept. 26—Dewey's brother Charles went down the bay on a tug to greet the admiral. The reception committee will go down this afternoon.

NEW YORK, TEXAS, DOLPHIN.

Tompkinsville, S. I., Sept. 26—Sampson and Captain Chadwick, of the flagship New York, left on the Dolphin to meet Dewey. They were in full uniform. The battleship Texas will go to meet the admiral late in the day, although Captain Silbee is not expected to participate, owing to the death of his daughter last Sunday.

WHY DEWEY CAME SO EARLY.

New York, Sept. 25—Rear Admiral Estressellie called at the mayor's office soon after the Olympia arrived and explained to the reception committee why the ship got here ahead of time. He said that, coming through the Suez canal, one screw was disabled. For this reason the ship was hurried, fearing it would be behind.

MONEY TO BURN.

A Crazy Man's Imaginings—A Perilous Trip.

Salisbury, Sept. 25—Mr. George Klutz, a well-to-do distiller and a good farmer, from below Salisbury, was in town yesterday, laboring under the delusion that he was the richest man in the world. He gave a barber $100 to shave him, threw money right and left in the streets and sent telegram after telegram to Pierpont Morgan, George Vanderbilt and other financiers in New York, telling them to buy up all the railroads in the country for him. Some wag in New York telegraphed a reply to him that the Southern railroad had been purchased for him and that now he was sole owner, which he firmly believes. Klutz crashed some six hundred dollars' worth of the Southern's pay checks and afterward lost them. An effort will be made to have him placed in the state hospital at Morganton.

Mr. Iglehart, one of the engineers of the Yadkin Power Company, with several others, performed a feat the other day that has never been done but once before. He took an ordinary river batteau and went through the Narrows on the Yadkin. This was done once before by a drunken man and no one has ever had the grit to try it since until Mr. Iglehart made the trip. He says there is not enough money in the world to induce him to make the second attempt. It certainly was a dangerous venture.—Special to Morning Post.

Need of Good Roads.

Far-sighted men in every part of the country are at length waking up to the importance of good roads and are doing everything in their power to convince the country that good roads must be constructed before national progress can be marked. Hence, in justice to the interests of the farmers, who are directly and immediately affected, it is of the utmost importance that good roads should be made the burden of thought ful consideration in every state in the Union.—Atlanta Constitution.

France Will be Exclusive.

Paris, Sept. 25—Minister of War De Gallifet has sent a circular to commanders of all army corps forbidding all officers traveling through Germany, Italy and Austria to attend manoeuvres of troops or to go to the grounds where manoeuvres are being held without the consent of the authorities of the respective countries. At the same time it is definitely stated that no army officer of any of the countries referred to will be allowed to witness French army manoeuvres.

A RACE AGAINST DEATH.

Mr. Newman's Efforts to Get to His Dying Child in Virginia.

A New York paper has the following about the trip recently made by Mr. W. G. Newman from New York to Somerset, Va.

A race against death by Mr. W. G. Newman, a Wall street stock broker, over the Pennsylvania lines from New York resulted in a phenomenally fast run from Philadelphia to Washington last Monday night. The distance of 136 miles was made in 133 minutes; 140 minutes actual time with seven minutes for stops. Mr. Newman is a New Yorker, but is well known in Washington. He has large interests in North Carolina and Virginia, and his family have been spending the summer at Somerset, Va.

Monday evening he was informed by wire that his little boy, five years old, was dying in Virginia, and arrangements were made at once to reach the child's bedside before he expired. Engine 16, one of the great space annihilators of the Pennsylvania Company was put at Mr. Newman's services and a Pullman car was attached. Engineer Bailey was at the throttle, and Conductor Fisher was in charge.

The special engine and one car left New York shortly before 9 o'clock and after a stop at the Pavonia avenue junction started for Washington at 10:24. It rolled into the Sixth street station at 12:44, having made the run of 136 miles in exactly 140 minutes. Stops in Wilmington and Baltimore and slow-downs for the miles of tunnels under the latter city were calculated at a difference of seven minutes, leaving the run of 136 miles in 133 minutes, almost unprecedented time for so long a trip.

Though he sped to the side of his dying child with all the swiftness of modern invention, Mr. Newman was only in time to see his little one pass away. The child died shortly after his father's arrival.

One of the finest and best lines of Infants' and Children's Shoes in this country are made by Allen & Co., of Philadelphia. Thacker & Brockmann have the exclusive sale of this line for Greensboro, and have just received their new stock of late styles for the fall and winter.

RISE AND GROWTH OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CAUSE IN STOKES.

About six years ago there was not a Presbyterian church in Stokes county, and scarcely a half dozen members. There were communities where the people dwelt in almost barbarity, assembling probably once a month for the ostensible purpose of worshipping the Almighty, but where the occasion was shamefully disgraced by drunkenness and fighting, retailing liquor and swapping lies and horses. Although some of these people were of the best character and law-abiding and conscientious citizens who came together for the true purpose. But the great bane of ignorance kept the cause of the Master in shame, and the holy Sabbath was little else than a general day of feasting and hilarity.

The First church, of Wirston, which is the richest Presbyterian one in the state, obligated itself to support a missionary for the county, and Rev. Cornelius Miller was sent. Mr. Miller is a thoroughly consecrated Christian, a man of deep learning, great spiritual power and influence, and a tireless worker. In less than three years he had created seven churches and added to the Presbyterian membership about two hundred souls. He invaded the strongholds of ignorance and sin, such as mentioned above—comparatively new and unexplored fields. Under his careful management and never ceasing labors, school houses were established and Sabbath schools created. He aroused and converted the people as they had never been before.

In April, 1897, Rev. Mr. Miller was called to another charge, and the Stokes field lay comparatively untenanted for more than a year. About July, 1898, Rev. S. S. Oliver was appointed to the charge, since when he has labored successfully, adding many new members and the work has continued to prosper under his supervision. But he has received a call from elsewhere, and will leave the field about the first of October.

The First church, of Winston, on last Sunday morning was asked to donate $600 for the support of a missionary to this important field again. The big hearted members instantly raised $750 for the work, and Rev. Cornelius Miller, who was tendered and who accepted a reappointment to his old labors a week ago, was authorized to resume charge of the field on October first.

* * * * *

The Dan River church, of Stokes, among all the old and well established churches of the state, had the high honor a year or so ago, and if we mistake not, still holds it, of standing second in the list of contributions to foreign missions, the Winston church standing first. This speaks highly of a church of so short an existence.

* * * * *

Mr. R. W. George, of the Dan River church, is a rich man. He was converted under the supervision of Rev. Mr. Miller and has devoted his life and a large part of his fortune to the work of the gospel. He has been ordained to the ministry.

The irrepressible goat has been discovered to have a higher mission in this world than to climb ladders, butt the small boy and eat up iron fences. A dispatch from Joliet, Ill., of the 23d instant, says:

"Irwin Fuller Bush, a young man of Joliet, was sent to Kankakee Asylum last March, pronounced hopelessly insane. Today, through treatment with lymph from glands of goats, Bush is at home completely restored in mind. The lymph was discovered by Dr. Roberts, a physician of Greene City, Mo. Its application to cases of insanity was made at a Chicago laboratory, where Bush was taken last June. He has been subjected to injections of the lymph, showing steady improvement until he was discharged last Tuesday, cured."

Some time since, as was mentioned editorially in the Telegram at the time, the lymph of the goat was found to be by being instilled into man, a guarantee of perpetual youth. Now that this further benefaction, mentioned above, is conferred upon the human race by the "member who had done voted," it seems the Danville Farrago's "wall-eyed science" has indeed found a very important and expansive subject, which we hope will be pursued to greater things still, till in some vague manner the goat may be utilized in the perpetual motion and the aerial navigation theories.

Admiral Dewey is not half so brave as he is lucky. Just because he accidentally fell into a position where opportunity offered to annihilate a Spanish fleet, which Schley or Watson or Clark or Samp—no, Sampson wouldn't 'a-done it—just as well, the nation is going to bend to him the last of this week in courtesies such as would inflate the vanity of a Cæsar. Then after all is over, having already a nice fortune of his own, the hero of Manila bay will be presented with a palatial home to cost not less than $60,000.

This is enough to turn the head of any ordinary mortal. America truly does the handsome thing for her heroes.

THE DEATH OF REV. MR. PERRY.

A Difference Between Christian Science and Faith Healing.

The Observer would not be so unfair as to confound and identify "Christian Science," so-called, and healing through faith as one and the same thing. The former is utterly absurd in that it begins with the teaching that disease has no real existence but is merely hallucination. On the other hand there are many good Christian people, who, striving to be obedient to all the Bible teaches, find authority for believing in healing through prayer, in the fifth chapter of the book of James, and elsewhere in the Scriptures. They should not be sneered at for obeying implicitly the Bible commands or for believing that when the Bible says: "The prayer of faith shall save the sick," it means what it says But it seems that these people are going to a dangerous extreme when they reject all use of medicine or the skill of physicians. The Bible also teaches, in addition to the above, that "the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." And if the All-Wise Creator has filled the earth with health-restoring herbs and plants and given men the wisdom to learn their value to human kind, it would seem to be tempting Providence to reject their use.

It is related that when missionaries first penetrated to the far South American forests to teach and preach to the natives of these regions, they became very quickly victims of the virulent malaria prevalent there. The Indian natives came to them and stated that the bark from a certain tree was a preventive of malaria. Thus was the priceless boon of the cincona tree bestowed upon the human race. Would it not be wrong to deny that the Creator planted the cincona for the benefit of His creatures? Then how can taking quinine show any lack of faith in God?

These remarks are called forth by our special from Marion today, which states that Rev. J. A. Perry, a good man and much beloved, is dead, and, that he refused the aid of medicine or the help of physicians.—Charlotte Observer.

Off for New York.

Governor Russell and party left Raleigh for New York via the Seaboard at 11:18 this morning. The party contained ten or twelve people, the governor, Senator Butler and wife and members of the governor's staff.

Company B did not go this morning as was intended, but will leave in a special car over the Seaboard Wednesday instead. This will put the company in New York on Thursday in abundant time for the parade.

The adjutant general's office has been notified that but one military organization from this state will be permitted in the parade. If the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry goes it and Company B will have to be merged into one company, though they can march separately in platoons.—News and Observer.

Miss Morrison's Case.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 25—The preliminary hearing of Julia Morrison, actress, charged with the murder of Actor Frank Leiden, of the "Mr. Plaster, of Paris," company, occurs tomorrow. Manager Harris, of the "Plaster of Paris" company arrived from Atlanta today. He visited Miss Morrison in jail and was so affected that he determined not to appear as a witness against the woman. Tonight, taking the rest of his company, he left the city for New York. No member of the company will appear against Miss Morrison. Judge Estill, of the Circuit Court, has convened the grand jury in special session for Thursday to pass upon Miss Morrison's case.

A Critical Situation in Venezuela.

Ponce, P. R., Sept. 25—Advices received here today from Caracas, describe the situation in Venezuela as critical. The revolutionists are approaching Victoria, where the next battle will be fought. People desiring to proceed to Puerto Cabello, on the Gulf of Triste, are not allowed to depart. The government is very popular and very suspicious.

THE GREAT STATE FAIR.

Good Races, Fine Exhibits, and Various Amusements.

Preparations for a record breaking State Fair go merrily forward.

The committee appointed to have the business houses of Raleigh represented in the parade have hardly met with a refusal and the number of floats will be up toward the half hundred mark.

The work on the grand stand was completed yesterday. The roofing of the exposition building will be gone over this week and the stalls and stables put in fine shape.

The track is to be made one of the very best in the South and speedy races are assured, particularly on Thursday when the $500 purse is offered.

The fact that nearly all space for exhibits is taken already tells the story of that feature of the fair.

The railroads have given a one-cent-a-mile rate and are preparing to afford ample accommodations for the thousands who will take advantage of it—for the people are coming, there is no sort of doubt about that.

Vanderbilt's Biltmore farm will send down the biggest exhibit yet displayed by North Carolina's wealthiest farmer.

Gen. Julian S. Carr will show what Occoneechee farm has done this year.

The Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company will erect a handsome pavilion to the left of the front entrance of floral hall to show that it believes the fair is a good thing.

Free attractions will be of a sort and scale never before witnessed at a state fair h re.

In the way of amusements there will be something to make every hour of the time not occupied in looking at the exhibits or watching the races pass swiftly and merrily.

In short nothing that can make the fair an occasion to be enjoyed while it lasts and remembered when it don't, will be neglected by the management this year.—News & Observer.

WALKER ON SCHLEY'S STATION.

"The Duties are Inadequate to a Flag Officer's Rank."

Admiral Walker says in a report to the navy department of the station to which Admiral Schley has been assigned:

"This station should cease to be a flag officer's command. The duties are inadequate to a flag officer's rank and position . . . The new vessels of our navy can be more economically maintained and can render better service elsewhere."

The Dewey Home Fund.

Washington, Sept. 25—The Dewey Home Fund, was increased today by $7,695. This advance is in response to the recent statement of the national Dewey committe. Over a hundred subscribers sent in their money by mail or wire from all parts of the country. While the committee is much encouraged by these liberal gifts, it is desired to add not less than $25,000 to the amount received which is now $34,748. It is assured that Admiral Dewey will accept the gift and will greatly appreciate the patriotic generosity of his fellow-citizens.

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A prominent Virginia editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy Read his editorial. From the Times, Hillstille, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore, Sold by C. E. Holton.

DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kelloes, Philadelphia. "We tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no results, until I heard of Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results far surpassed our expectations. She now eats and sleeps well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had got to be yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I tell her that Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."

THE TYRANT CUPID.

Say what you will, Cupid is somewhat of a tyrant after all. He waves his lash of government over the head of every woman who elects him to rule her life. No woman can choose the happiness and honor of wifehood and motherhood without being subject also to its pains and penalties.

But no woman ought to suffer as most do from those ailments and weaknesses which are due to her peculiarly delicate and susceptible organism. Every woman ought to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure these unnatural and debilitating troubles. It cures them absolutely, completely, permanently. It contains no alcohol to create a craving for stimulants.

"It is with heart-felt gratitude that I must tell you what your medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. A. F. Crenshaw, of Panasoffkee, Sumter Co., Fla., in a letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. "After consulting you about my case I took your medicine and it cured me of female weakness. I was all run down; I suffered with sick headache, pains in the back and bearing down pains. I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was then able to take care of my house. My health is better than it has been for three years. I do not know how to thank you for the kind advice you gave so cheerfully."

This grand "Prescription" has accomplished the same beneficent purpose for thousands of women in every corner of this broad land. It imparts health, strength and endurance to the special organism of womanhood and gives tonic vitality to the entire nervous system. Its marvelous properties are more fully described in one chapter of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., a splendid thousand-page illustrated volume which will be sent free paper-bound for 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only; or cloth-bound for 31 stamps.

AT BINGHAM SCHOOL.

Football Prospects—Opening Reception to Faculty and Students.

Correspondence Telegram.

Mebane, N. C., Sept 25—The bright cool autumn weather continues to bring in new students and the number is now larger by a good deal than at this time last session. Every one agrees that Bingham has never had an abler faculty nor a nicer set of boys.

Interest in football seems to be thoroughly aroused and every evening finds almost every boy in school on on the athletic field, where the school eleven and the scrubs daily contend for the mastery. Last session Bingham won two-thirds of the football games played and it is hoped this session to better last year's record.

Friday night Mrs. Wm. Bingham assisted by Mrs. Gray gave a most enjoyable reception to the faculty and students At an early hour a number of beautiful and attractive young ladies assembled with their escorts at Midlawn, the hospitable home of Mrs. Bingham, and soon the rapidly passing hours were made bright with happy laughter and many social pleasures. The music given by Messrs. Bernhart, Boone and Mangum on the mandolin and guitars was especially pleasing. Mr. and Mrs. Gray also rendered a number of piano solos and duets. The apartments were beautifully decorated with palms and ferns. After enjoying the social games and music the young people repaired to the dining room, where most delicious refreshments were served. After a pleasant evening the company unwillingly dispersed, unanimously voting that they had had a fine time, and looking forward to the several receptions to be given during the year.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE CAMPAIGN WILL OPEN

In North Carolina Shortly After the New Year Begins

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION RAISED

Concerning Constitutional Amendment—Will Dreyfus Go to San Antonio.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, Sept 26—Representative-elect Charles R. Thomas, of North Carolina, has been in the city for several days, stopping at the Metropolitan hotel. Mr. Thomas is one of the newly elected democrats from the old North State, and will take the seat occupied during the last congress by ex-Representative John E. Fowler, populist. He is in the city on matters of local interest to his district, and among other things to secure better rural mail facilities for some of the counties of the state. The rural free delivery system which was recently extended in South Carolina, and other southern states has worked well and given satisfaction to the people, and Mr. Thomas desires to have the same system of free rural delivery extended to the counties of his own congressional district.

Mr. Thomas is one of the popular democrats from North Carolina and is an active worker in the party. In speaking of the political situation in his state, he said that the campaign would open shortly after the year 1900 is ushered in. There will be two elections in the state next year, the first in August, will be for the election of state officials, a legislature, and at the same time the proposed constitutional amendment will be voted upon. In November of the same year, the presidential electors will be chosen, the same as in other states of the Union Mr. Thomas says that the most interest in the state is felt in the August election. He thinks there is not the slightest doubt of the election of a democratic governor to succeed Russell, and also of the full state ticket and a democratic legislature. As to the constitutional amendment, Mr. Thomas says there is practically in his mind, no doubt of its adoption. He says that a number of white republicans are joining the democrats in support of the amendment, as are also many of the members of the Populist party. The reasons given by republicans and populists for supporting the constitutional amendment is that it will enable the white people of the state to divide upon political and economic issues, and not to bring the race question into the state and national campaigns.

What is likely to be an important question has been raised as to the effect of the proposed constitutional amendment, which has been the most discussed section provided, it is claimed that the amendment shall not be enforced against those whose ancestors voted in North Carolina prior to January 1st, 1867. It is said that prior to 1835 free colored men in the state enjoyed the elective franchise. In that year by constitutional amendment free negroes were deprived of the ballot. It is claimed that there are about five thousand lineal descendants in North Carolina of these colored voters prior to 1833, and that under the amendment as it is now framed that they would have the right, and could not legally be deprived of the privilege of registering and voting in state and national elections.

A prominent North Carolina democrat disputed this claim, and says that the proposed amendment has been carefully worded, and provides that those whose "ancestors could vote," on January 1st, 1867, and not those "whose ancestors voted prior" to January 1st, 1867, shall not come under the operations of the amendment. He says that if free negroes were deprived of the ballot in 1835, then obliviously they could not vote January 1st, 1867, and therefore the proposed amendment does not exempt their descendents from the operation of its provisions.

Among southern men in Washington is Mr. M. E. Lanck, of San Antonio, Texas. He says it is reported that Capt. Dreyfus is going to San Antonio, where it is said some of his friends now reside. He says that San Antonio is one of the most healthful cities in the United States, and if is true that Captain Dreyfus and family are going to that city that they will give him a cordial greeting.

Col. and Mrs. Youngblood have returned from a lengthy visit to Montgomery, Alabama. Mr. Youngblood is auditor of the treasury, and is one of the popular southern officials in Washington.

Ex-Representative Aldrich, of Alabama and Mrs. Aldrich, have also returned to Washington, and they will reside here this wintor.

Representatives Epes, of Virginia, who was in Washington last week in the interest of the proposed National park at Petersburg, to include some of the historic battlefields in that vicinity, has returned home. He was much pleased with his visit to Washington, and also with his talk with Secretary Root about the matter. The representative of the war department will go to Petersburg to enquire into the project.

You can't have a yacht race without wind; nor, for that matter, a prize-fight.

JIM HALL KNOCKED OUT

By Prof. Choynski—2,500 People Saw Him Do It.

Louisville, Sept. 25—Joe Choyinski, of California, knocked out Jim Hall, of Australia, in the third round tonight, before the Nonpareil Athletic Club, at Music Hall, in the presence of 2,500 people. It was announced that the fight was for the light heavyweight championship, limited to 20 rounds, and for a division of the box office receipts. Hall weighed 168 pounds, and Choyinski 160.

The fight was lively enough while it lasted, with the honors possibly in Hall's favor during the first two rounds, but in the third Choyinski used his right and left effectively a number of times, and when but a half minute of the third round remained, he landed several rights and lefts in succession, sending Hall to the floor where he remained until carried to his corner after the referee had counted the ten seconds. Instantly there were cries of "fake" from all quarters and a more disappointed crowd never left a ringside in this city.

Smiling Smidgets.

Days shorten and gas bills lengthen.

The eater of the early apple catches the worm.

It's a poor mule that won't work both ways.

Screen doors and straw hats are coming down.

The baker, if he mixes his dough properly, has a soft thing of it.

It's one point in a woman's favor when she can sharpen a lead pencil.

"There's considerable change in the weather," chuckled the facetious clothing merchant as he counted up the proceeds of his first fall overcoat sale.

Toper—"The end of my nose is getting very red, doctor. Hadn't I better take something for it?" Physician—"No; leave off 'taking something' for a while."

Cholly—"Deuced fine girl that Miss Gotrox. She's simply—aw—out of sight, doncher know." Reggy—"Well, it seems so. When I called there and sent up me card yesterday the maid—haw! haw!—Came back and said she couldn't be seen."

"Ha! ha! ha!" laughed Funniman. "'Hair cut while you wait.' That sign's absurd. Ha! ha!" "I don't know about that," remarked the barber, reflectively; "those fellows waiting while I'm cutting yours won't see anything absurd about it."

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggest.

RURAL MAIL IN THIS STATE.

The Errand of Representative Charles R. Thomas to the Capital.

Representative Charles R. Thomas, of the Third district of North Carolina, has been in the city for the past few days at the Nordica. Mr. Thomas is the democratic successor of John E. Fowler, populist, and has been, also, a member of the legislature of his state and a presidential elector.

In conversation with a Post reporter he said: "On this flying visit to Washington I have been at work upon matters of interest to my district. I am especially interested in getting better mail facilities and a free rural delivery for some of the counties.

"The campaign in North Carolina will probably open early in 1900. The political conventions will be held earlier than usual next year, as under the new election law two elections are to be held; the first in August, at which all state and county officers and the egislature are to be elected; the second in November, at which presidential electors and congressmen are to be chosen. At the August election the proposed amendment to the state constitution, limiting the franchise and similar to the Louisiana amendment, will be voted upon.

"A number of prominent republicans are now announcing their determination to support this amendment, enabling men of all parties to discuss and vote upon political issues in an independent way without the injection of the negro and the color lines into politics. Many populists will also cast their ballots for it, and it will be ratified at the polls. As to national politics, I feel sure North Carolina will be in 1900 as she was in 1898—for William J. Bryan and the Chicago platform."—Washington Post.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price. 50c.

The Morgan liner El Cid will be launched on October 7 at Newport News, Va.

"I suffered with piles eleven years before using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve; now my health is fully restored—I feel like a new born man"—Conrad Stange, Pierz, Minn. A soothing, healing preparation of standard merit; beware of worthless counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

The body of Delta Saville, aged 12, was found, weighted down, in Hehelam river, near Dillamook, Ore. She had been assaulted.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

BILL POSTING.

No Trouble to Find Out What the Law Is.

The Telegram is in receipt of an inquiry about the law regulating the distributing of bills and posters in the city. The letter is an anonymous one, and we therefore cannot print it, but as it touches a matter about which there appears to be an erroneous impression among our people, we will take occasion to say, in the first place, there is no excuse for ignorance in the matter. Any person who desires to know the facts can obtain them by applying to the city clerk.

The letter referred to protests against "the injustice done our merchants by prohibiting their distribution of advertising matter." Such is not at all prohibited. Every man who conducts business regularly in Greensboro, is at liberty to circulate all the bills advertising his business that he wants to regardless of the bill poster's license. It is the man who does business elsewhere and who comes here with wares for an auction sale in competition with our regularly organized business houses, or show people, in fact all foreign advertisers, are the people to whom the bill posting tax applies, and who are required to do their posting and distributing through the regularly licensed bill poster.

MR. DICK GOES NORTH.

Will Look Into the Latest and Newest Laundry Machinery.

Tonight Mr. Jno. M. Dick, proprietor of the Greensboro Steam Laundry, leaves for a visit to northern cities. Incidentally he will take in Dewey day, but the real object of his visit is to investigate the newest and latest appliances and laundry machinery.

Mr. Dick expects to soon erect a new and much larger building for his laundry, and says he will equip it with anything needed to make it by long odds the best laundry in the state. To this end he will make close inspection while gone.

We wish him a pleasant trip and hope he will be successful in his investigations. To a man who has been wearing linen turned out from his laundry it would seem that it could not be improved upon; but if it is possible to improve it it will be done.

Dr. Murray is a practical, earnest, Scriptural preacher, and all who go out to hear him will be well repaid.

The services will be held at 3 o'clock p. m. and 8 p. m. Everybody is invited to attend these services
